Head to the hills in search of Britain's largest land mammal

Experience the wonder of this wilderness environment as you search for Britain's largest land mammal, the Red Deer, in the company of an experienced Safari Ranger. Stalking celebrates the challenge of this search with a close up photograph being the ultimate achievement. However, the experience of using the centuries old traditions of Stalking and Mountain Craft and feeling the exhilaration drawn from the stunningly beautiful mountains is the true reward.

People who stalk in the Highlands of Scotland have become enchanted by its spirit and your experience can include spotting a majestic Golden Eagle or elusive Mountain Hare.

Your experience includes:

- Digital Camera for the duration of your experience - photographs of your day will be sent on electronically.
 - Delicious picnic lunch, Safari Land Rover and personal Safari Ranger.
 - Ample car parking at The Safari Lodge.
 - Map, Telescope and Binoculars.
 - Outdoor clothing if required and for camouflaging
 - Whisky Dram on the hill
- Please note: Sturdy footwear & dark clothing is essential for this experience.

"One of the most rewarding days of a lifetime."
